

Robert Diao

Melbourne Victoria | 0450 066 006 | rdiao.work@gmail.com

Projects & Experiences

Catalyst Hack – Participant – 2018

Designed and developed a web platform to help the communication between universities and students with features such as subject recommendations and reviews. Developed on the React framework with Node.js.

Hack the City – Participant – 2018

Planned and designed a business case for an asset management system to help reduce asset loss for Downer and Spotless.

UniHack – Participant – 2018

Designed and developed a safety focused navigation application to help users feel safe when returning home late at night. Developed on the Android platform using Java and a Firebase backend.

iOS Navigation Application – Software Dev – 2018

Prototyped and developed a navigation app focused on helping the elderly navigate. Developed the location saving feature for the app. Project was developed on Swift with a Firebase backend.

Board game AI – Software Dev – 2017

Designed and developed an AI system to play a custom boardgame by utilizing algorithms and data structures such as the Minimax tree and A star. Developed on Python 3.

Flare Dance Ensemble – Committee Role – 2017

Filmed and managed video content for Flare Dance. Club contained 900+ members. Videos were edited in Adobe Premier.

Education

University of Melbourne – 2016 - present

The Bachelor of Science, Major in Software and Computing. Course work included software design, models of computing, project management and object-oriented design principles. Expected mid-2019 Graduation.

Activities & Awards

Western Chances Scholarship Recipient: Selected applicant from the western region to receive educational funding until education goals are achieved.

Renewal Church Volunteer: Aided orphaned elders from the 2008 Sichuan Earthquake.